DATA PROTECTION
INSURANCE MARKET CORE
USES INFORMATION NOTICE
Insurance is the pooling and sharing of risk in order to provide protection against a possible eventuality. In order to do this, information, including your personal data, needs to be shared between different insurance market participants glossary. The insurance market is committed to safeguarding that information.

- This notice is designed to help you understand how the insurance market participants process your personal data through the insurance lifecycle diagram.
- This notice may be updated from time to time: this version is dated 05 September 2018.
- Insurance market participants may link to, or refer to, this notice from their own information notices or consent wordings and this notice should be read in conjunction with the participant's own information notice.

IN THIS NOTICE:

we, us or our refers to the relevant insurance market participant diagram with policyholder, insurer, broker, reinsurer; you or your, refers to the individual whose personal data [may be/is being] processed by an insurance market participant (you may be the insured, beneficiary, claimant or other person involved in a claim or relevant to a policy). There are other terms in bold with specific meanings. Those meanings can be found here.

2. THE DATA WE MAY COLLECT ABOUT YOU

In order for us to provide insurance quotes, insurance policies, and/or deal with any claims or complaints, we need to collect and process personal data about you. The types of personal data that are processed may include:

- INDIVIDUAL DETAILS
- IDENTIFICATION DETAILS
- FINANCIAL INFORMATION
- RISK DETAILS
- POLICY INFORMATION
- CREDIT AND ANTI-FRAUD DATA
- PREVIOUS AND CURRENT CLAIMS
- SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL DATA
2. THE DATA WE MAY COLLECT ABOUT YOU

In order for us to provide insurance quotes, insurance policies, and/or deal with any claims or complaints, we need to collect and process personal data about you. The types of personal data that are processed may include:

- INDIVIDUAL DETAILS
  Name, address (including proof of address), other contact details (e.g. email and telephone numbers), gender, marital status, date and place of birth, nationality, employer, job title and employment history, and family details, including their relationship to you

- IDENTIFICATION DETAILS
  Identification numbers issued by government bodies or agencies, including national insurance number, passport number, tax identification number and driving licence number

- FINANCIAL INFORMATION
  Bank account or payment card details, income or other financial information

- RISK DETAILS
  Information about you which we need to collect in order to assess the risk to be insured and provide a quote. This may include data relating to your health, criminal convictions, or other special categories of personal data. For certain types of policy, this could include telematics data.

- POLICY INFORMATION
  Information about the quotes you receive and policies you take out

- CREDIT AND ANTI-FRAUD DATA
  Credit history, credit score, sanctions and criminal offences, and information received from various anti-fraud databases relating to you

- PREVIOUS AND CURRENT CLAIMS
  Information about previous and current claims, (including other unrelated insurances), which may include data relating to your health, criminal convictions, or other special categories of personal data and in some cases, surveillance reports

- SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL DATA
  Certain categories of personal data which have additional protection under the GDPR. The categories are health, criminal convictions, racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric, or data concerning sex life or sexual orientation
We might collect your personal data from various sources, including:

- you;
- your family members, employer or representative;
- other insurance market participants;
- credit reference agencies;
- anti-fraud databases, sanctions lists, court judgements and other databases;
- government agencies such as the DVLA and HMRC;
- open electoral register; or
- in the event of a claim, third parties including the other party to the claim (claimant / defendant), witnesses, experts (including medical experts), loss adjustors, solicitors, and claims handlers.

Which of the above sources apply will depend on your particular circumstances.
The insurance lifecycle involves the sharing of your personal data between insurance market participants, some of which you will not have direct contact with. In addition, your personal data may not have been collected directly by an insurance market participant.

You can find out the identity of the initial data controller of your personal data within the insurance market life-cycle in the following ways:

WHERE YOU TOOK OUT THE INSURANCE POLICY YOURSELF:

The insurer and, if purchased through an intermediary, the intermediary will be the initial data controller and their data protection contact can advise you on the identities of other insurance market participants that they have passed your personal data to.
II. WHERE YOUR EMPLOYER OR ANOTHER ORGANISATION TOOK OUT THE POLICY FOR YOUR BENEFIT:

You should contact your employer or the organisation that took out the policy who should provide you with details of the insurer or intermediary that they provided your personal data to and you should contact their data protection contact who can advise you on the identities of other insurance market participants that they have passed your personal data to.

The insurance lifecycle involves the sharing of your personal data between insurance market participants, some of which you will not have direct contact with. In addition, your personal data may not have been collected directly by an insurance market participant. 4. IDENTITIES OF DATA CONTROLLERS AND DATA PROTECTION CONTACTS

The insurance lifecycle involves the sharing of your personal data between insurance market participants, some of which you will not have direct contact with. In addition, your personal data may not have been collected directly by an insurance market participant.

You can find out the identity of the initial data controller of your personal data within the insurance market life-cycle in the following ways:

III. WHERE YOU ARE NOT A POLICYHOLDER OR AN INSURED:

You should contact the organisation that collected your personal data who should provide you with details of the relevant participant’s data protection contact.
We set out below the purposes insurance market participants might use your personal data for. If you click on a purpose you can see:

- If that type of insurance market participant uses your personal data for that particular purpose
- The categories of personal data it collects
- What personal data it might provide to third parties (disclosures).
- The legal grounds for processing that personal data. Those legal grounds are set out in the GDPR.

Please note that in addition to the disclosures we have identified against each purpose, we may also disclose personal data for those purposes to our service providers, contractors, agents and group companies that perform activities on our behalf.
5. THE PURPOSES, CATEGORIES, LEGAL GROUNDS AND RECIPIENTS, OF OUR PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

PURPOSES

QUOTATION/INCEPTION
- Setting you up as a client, including possible fraud, sanctions, credit and anti-money laundering checks
- Evaluating the risks to be covered and matching to appropriate policy/premium
- Payment of premium where the insured/policyholder is an individual

POLICY ADMINISTRATION
- Client care, including communicating with you and sending you updates
- Payments to and from individuals

CLAIMS PROCESSING
- Managing insurance and reinsurance claims
- Defending or prosecuting legal claims
- Investigation or prosecuting fraud

RENEWALS
- Contacting the insured/policyholder to renew the insurance policy
- Evaluating the risks to be covered and matching to appropriate policy/premium
- Payment of premium where the insured/policyholder is an individual

OTHER PURPOSES OUTSIDE OF THE INSURANCE LIFECYCLE BUT NECESSARY FOR THE PROVISION OF INSURANCE THROUGHOUT THE INSURANCE LIFECYCLE PERIOD
- Complying with our legal or regulatory obligations
- General risk modelling
- Transferring books of business, company sales & reorganisations

Please note that in addition to the disclosures we have identified against each purpose, we may also disclose personal data for those purposes to our service providers, contractors, agents and group companies that perform activities on our behalf.
In order to provide insurance cover and deal with insurance claims in certain circumstances insurance market participants may need to process your special categories of personal data, such as medical and criminal convictions records, as set out against the relevant purpose.

Your consent to this processing may be necessary for the insurance market participant to achieve this.

If you have provided your consent but want to withdraw it, you may withdraw your consent to such processing at any time. However, if you withdraw your consent this will impact our ability to provide insurance or pay claims.
7. PROFILING AND AUTOMATIC DECISION MAKING

When calculating insurance premiums, insurance market participants may compare your personal data against industry averages. Your personal data may also be used to create the industry averages going forwards. This is known as profiling and is used to ensure premiums reflect risk. Profiling may also be used by insurance market participants to assess information you provide to understand fraud patterns. Where special categories of personal data are relevant, such as medical history for life insurance or past motoring convictions for motor insurance, your special categories of personal data may also be used for profiling. Insurance market participants might make some decisions based on profiling and without staff intervention (known as automatic decision making).

Insurance market participants will provide details of any automated decision making they undertake without staff intervention in their information notices [and upon request] including:

WHERE THEY USE SUCH AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING

THE LOGIC INVOLVED

THE CONSEQUENCES OF THE AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING

ANY FACILITY FOR YOU TO HAVE THE LOGIC EXPLAINED TO YOU AND TO SUBMIT FURTHER INFORMATION SO THE DECISION MAY BE RECONSIDERED.
We will keep your personal data only for so long as is necessary and for the purpose for which it was originally collected. In particular, for so long as there is any possibility that either you or we may wish to bring a legal claim under this insurance, or where we are required to keep your personal data due to legal or regulatory reasons.
We may need to transfer your data to insurance market participants or their affiliates or sub-contractors which are located outside of the European Economic Area (EEA). Those transfers would always be made in compliance with the GDPR.

If you would like further details of how your personal data would be protected if transferred outside the EEA, please contact the data protection contact of the relevant participant.
If you have any questions in relation to our use of your personal data, you should first contact the data protection contact of the relevant participant. Under certain conditions, you may have the right to require us to:

- provide you with further details on the use we make of your personal data/special category of data;
- provide you with a copy of the personal data that you have provided to us;
- update any inaccuracies in the personal data we hold;
- delete any special category of data/personal data that we no longer have a lawful ground to use;
- where processing is based on consent, to withdraw your consent so that we stop that particular processing;
- object to any processing based on the legitimate interests ground unless our reasons for undertaking that processing outweigh any prejudice to your data protection rights; and
- restrict how we use your personal data whilst a complaint is being investigated.

In certain circumstances, we may need to restrict the above rights in order to safeguard the public interest (e.g. the prevention or detection of crime) and our interests (e.g. the maintenance of legal privilege).

If you are not satisfied with our use of your personal data or our response to any request by you to exercise any of your rights in SECTION 10, or if you think that we have breached the GDPR, then you have the right to complain to the ICO. Please see below for contact details of the ICO.
11. GLOSSARY OF KEY TERMS

KEY INSURANCE TERMS

BENEFICIARY is an individual or a company that an insurance policy states may receive a payment under the insurance policy if an insured event occurs. A beneficiary does not have to be the insured/policyholder and there may be more than one beneficiary under an insurance policy.

CLAIMANT is either a beneficiary who is making a claim under an insurance policy or an individual or a company who is making a claim against a beneficiary where that claim is covered by the insurance policy.

CLAIMS PROCESSING is the process of handling a claim that is made under an insurance policy.

QUOTATION is the process of providing a quote to a potential insured/policyholder for an insurance policy.

INCEPTION is when the insurance policy starts.

INSURANCE is the pooling and transfer of risk in order to provide financial protection against a possible eventuality. There are many types of insurance. The expression insurance may also mean reinsurance.

INSURANCE POLICY is a contract of insurance between the insurer and the insured/policyholder.

INSURANCE MARKET PARTICIPANT(s) or PARTICIPANTS is an intermediary, insurer or reinsurer.

INSURED/POLICYHOLDER is the individual or company in whose name the insurance policy is issued. A potential insured policyholder may approach an intermediary to purchase an insurance policy or they may approach an insurer directly or via a price comparison website.
INSURERS: (sometimes also called underwriters) provide insurance cover to insured / policyholders in return for premium.
   An insurer may also be a reinsurer.

INTERMEDIARIES help policyholders and insurers arrange insurance cover. They may offer advice and handle claims.
   Many insurance and reinsurance policies are obtained through intermediaries

LLOYD’S: many policies are underwritten in Lloyd’s of London. Lloyd’s is a specialist insurance market place.
   To find out more about how Lloyd’s operates click here

POLICY ADMINISTRATION is the process of administering and managing an insurance policy following its inception

PREMIUM is the amount of money to be paid by the insured/policyholder to the insurer in the insurance policy

REINSURERS provide insurance cover to another insurer or reinsurer. That insurance is known as reinsurance

RENEWAL is the process of the insurer under an insurance policy providing a quotation to the insured/policyholder for a new insurance policy to replace the existing one on its expiry

WE, US or OUR refers to the relevant insurance market participant. policyholder, insurer, broker, reinsurer

YOU or YOUR refers to the individual whose personal data may be processed by an insurance market participant.
   You may be the insured, beneficiary, claimant or other person involved in a claim or relevant to an insurance policy
11. GLOSSARY OF KEY TERMS

GDPR is the EU General Data Protection Regulation and the new UK Data Protection Act, which replaces the UK Data Protection Act 1998 from 25 May 2018.

DATA CONTROLLER is an entity which collects and holds personal data. It decides what personal data it collects about you and how that personal data is used. Any of the insurance market participants when using your personal data for the purposes set out in Section 5 could be data controllers.

DATA PROTECTION CONTACT: the person named by the relevant insurance market participant who you should contact if you have any queries or requests regarding your personal data or how we are using it. In many cases (although not all), this person will be the Data Protection Officer of the relevant insurance market participant.

INFORMATION COMMISSIONER’S OFFICE (ICO) is the regulator (or National Competent Authority / Data Protection Authority) for data protection matters in the UK.

PERSONAL DATA is any data from which you can be identified and which relates to you. It may include data about any claims you make.

PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA includes collecting, using, storing, disclosing or erasing your personal data.
